PROF. J. C. MONAGHAN QUILTS

Resigns Position as Chief of the Consular Bureau.

Will Devote His Time to Lecturing. Has Plans Made for a Tour Through the West.

Announcement was made at the Department of Commerce and Labor yesterday that Prof. J. C. Monaghan, chief of the consular division of the Bureau of Manufactures, has resigned from that position with the intention of taking up lecturing. His resignation was entirely voluntary, and is greatly regretted by the officials of the department, in which he has done splendid work.

Prof. Monaghan has been on leave of absence for some weeks, and has been giving lectures in Madison, Wis., which met with such success that he has decided to continue this sort of work. He intends going from Madison to Eutaw, Mont., and from there on to the Coast by easy stages. His wife and children will remain in Washington a short while, when they will join him in San Francisco. Mr. Monaghan is a native of Wisconsin, having been born on a farm a short distance from Madison, where he spent the early part of his life. He studied at the university there, and before coming to Washington was a member of the faculty of philosophy. He was later consul to Antwerp.

When the Department of Commerce and Labor was organized that part of the consular division dealing with foreign trade reports was transferred to it from the State Department, and he was appointed chief. He has made a fine reputation as a speaker since his residence in Washington, and is looked on as one of the readiest talkers in the city.

Remembrances. Nothing more dainty as an Easter remembrance than Flowers. Gude, 1214 F.

Prof. Barakat to Lecture. Prof. Barakat, of Damascus, who narrowly escaped death in two religious persecutions of Christians by Turkish Mohammedans, will lecture in the Salvation Army Hall, this evening. Service begins at 8 o'clock. The professor will be dressed in his native costume.

Furniture Excellence.

There is nothing gained in getting a "cheap" thing unless it has manifest merit. But if you can get "time-enduring furniture excellence" at a small cost, that's different—you're treasure finding then. This splendid stock offers hundreds of temptations to those wanting lasting pieces for home comfort and beautifying—those far-famed products that are to-day sought after by home art critics. That's the kind of Furniture which we now offer to you at less price than "cheap" kinds—the kinds that only serve a short probation. Our new spring stocks can hardly fail to meet with your approval, for the patterns show refreshing novelty combined with true artistic merit.

We are always glad to arrange accommodating terms of Credit if you wish.
